

PREFACE

1. Scope

This unclassified publication addresses the *how*s of Army-Marine Corps Integration (AMCI) in joint operations. It describes the capabilities and limitations of selected Army and Marine Corps units and provides methodologies in the form of tactics, techniques, and procedures (TTP) for the integrated employment of those units in a joint warfighting environment. This publication has been prepared under the direction of the commander, United States Army Training and Doctrine Command and the commanding general, Marine Corps Combat Development Command for use by United States Army (USA) and United States Marine Corps (USMC) forces.

2. Purpose

This publication provides a single-source reference detailing multiservice TTP for planning and executing joint operations between USA and USMC forces.

3. Application

This publication applies to the operating forces of the Army and Marine Corps. It provides multiservice information for integration of Army and Marine Corps forces. Although the focus of the publication is at the joint force and component levels, it has application for planning and warfighting personnel at all echelons.

4. Implementation Plan

Participating service command offices of primary responsibility (OPRs) will review this publication, validate the information, and reference and incorporate it in service manuals, regulations, and curricula as follows:

Army. The Army will incorporate the procedures in this publication in US Army doctrinal and training publications as directed by the commander, US Army Training and Doctrine Command. Distribution is in accordance with DA Form 12-11E.

Marine Corps. The Marine Corps will incorporate the procedures in this publication in US Marine Corps doctrinal and training publications as directed by the commanding general, US Marine Corps Combat Development Command. Distribution is in accordance with MCPDS.
